

Harris County Justice Of The Peace Courts

Local Rules

Updated: April 26, 2006

RULE 1. OBJECTIVES OF LOCAL RULES

In accordance with the provisions of Section 75.404 of the Texas Government Code, the Justices of the Peace in Harris County may adopt local rules to provide for the assignment, docketing, transfer, and hearing of cases. A local rule may provide for the prosecution of a criminal case in any precinct designated by the local rule, notwithstanding other provisions of law regarding venue. A civil case, except an eviction suit, may be brought in any precinct designated by the local rule.

It is the objective of these Local Rules to provide for the efficient processing of cases that come before the Harris County Justice Courts so that persons coming before the court have a meaningful opportunity to be heard, consistent with Chapter 45 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure and Part V of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure governing practice and procedure in the Justice of the Peace Courts.

ADOPTED April 22, 2004

RULE 2. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

Notwithstanding other provisions of law regarding venue, (1) a misdemeanor case to be tried in a Harris County Justice Court may be prosecuted, according to a Local Rule, in any Precinct designated by the Local Rule, and (2) a civil case, except a suit for eviction or involving real property, may be brought, according to a Local Rule, in any Precinct designated by the Local Rule.
